Minnesota State History Day Results
May 1, 2005

Note: The first and second place award winners in each category will represent Minnesota at National History Day 2005. All third place award winners are alternates. If either of the first or second place award winners cannot attend National History Day, the third-place entry for that category will be given the opportunity to represent Minnesota at the national event.

Junior Group Exhibit
1. Harry Davis Academy, Betty Crocker Communicating to Women, Christina Nirandone, Shanquia Brown, Cierra Muse
2. Fergus Falls Middle School, Farmers Cooperatives and Phone Service in Otter Tail County, Keely Brokke, Allison Steinie, Lydia Christianson

Junior Group Documentary
2. Sunrise Park Middle School, Understanding the Dream: Communicating the Message of Martin Luther King Jr., Nicholas Herringer, Daniel Holthus, Madeline Schmidt

Junior Group Performance
2. Christ Household of Faith School, We Hunt for Words: Gideon and Samuel Pond's Quest to Communicate with the Dakota Indians, Samantha Simonson, Adam Rohlf, Bryant Rooney, Myles Eckman, Celeste Johnston

Junior Individual Exhibit
1. Cyber Villiage Academy, Unlocking the Code: The Key to Understanding German Enigma Machine Secret Communications During WWII, Kelly Rexon
2. Wayzata Central Middle School, The Pony Express, Thomas McCullough

Junior Individual Documentary
2. Sunrise Park Middle School, Jacob Riis: Changing Lives Through Communication, Sarah Cochrane

Junior Individual Performance
3. Cedar Creek Community School, Elizabeth Cady Stanton: A Voice of Communication for Women's Suffrage, Amanda Ahlers

Junior Paper
1. FAIR School, Bringing the Slums to Light: The Way How the Other Half Lives Changed the Manner in Which Americans Looked at the Slums, Erin Swenson-Klatt
3. Sunrise Park Middle School, Walt Disney's Animation Entertainment, Rebecca Hampel

Senior Group Exhibit
1. Southwest High School, Military Intelligence Service Language School: The Key To Understanding Japanese War Communications, Katie Froehlich, Rachel Portnoy
2. Southwest High School, Allen Ginsberg and the Beat Generation: Communicating New Ideas Through Poetry, Sarah Parker, Mathilde Mow
3. Southwest High School, Smokey Bear: The Key to Understanding Forest Fire Prevention, Emily Holm, Amelia Krug

Senior Group Documentary
2. Central High School, Julia Child - Communication from the Kitchen, Anna Rice, Ellen Rice
3. Southwest High School, Daniel Ellsberg & The Pentagon Papers: Communicating The Truth, Emmie Monsein, Amelia Ahl, Maggie Henderson

Senior Group Performance
1. DeLaSalle High School, The Crisis vs. Opportunity: The Key to Understanding the Negro Community, Aaron Beswick, Amber McGuire
2. Christ Househole of Faith School, Communicating Effectively to the Masses: The Radio Act of 1927, Zane Sacarelos, Azalea Fricke, Dominique Scheeler, Donald Bluhm
3. St. Louis Park High School, Elizabeth: The Wit Behind the Woman, Megan Frestedt, Racheal Scully

Senior Individual Exhibit
1. South High School, Silarnosc: Communicating Solidarity in Poland, Jennifer Walker
2. Southwest High School, Steve Bantu Biko: Communicating Black Consciousness to Free Black South Africans from Oppression, Sarah Abdelwahab
3. Southwest High School, How Television Changed the World: Communicating the Vietnam War, Lewis Wilcox

Senior Individual Documentary
1. Mankato West High School, The Military Intelligence Service Language School: Communication in WWII, Adriane Otopalik
2. South High School, The Ripper Reformation, Dustin McEvoy
3. South High School, To Win the Heart of a Nation: Leni Riefenstahl Communicates Hitler's Utopian Dream, Joshua Boucher

Senior Individual Performance
1. Eagan High School, Jane Grey Swisshelm, Caitlin Loehr
3. Southwest High School, The Samil March, Mary Howard

Senior Paper

2. Southwest High School, Communication at Camp David: The Key to Peace and Understanding between Israel and Egypt, Ari Resnick